

Energy Efficiency Summary Report 2024

CETIN Hungary Zrt.

2045 Törökbálint, Pannon street 1.

I. Energy consumption in 2024:

The main energy sources used by CETIN Hungary Zrt. were:

- Electricity, with consumption exceeding 80 GWh;
- Natural gas, with a consumption between 0 and 10,000 m<sup>3</sup>;
- District heating, with consumption between 0 and 420 GJ;
- Fuel (petrol and diesel), with a consumption between 0 and 550 MWh.

II. Share of energy consumption by use

III. Share of energy consumption by source

IV. Energy Efficiency Investments Implemented in 2024

In line with the company's energy-conscious commitment, the number of energy-efficient stations in 4G and 5G technology has been expanded. Additionally, free-cooling air conditioning systems were introduced, energy-efficient air conditioners were replaced, and investments were made in higher-efficiency rectifiers. Furthermore, during the modernization of data center systems, components with significant energy consumption were shut down. The annual energy savings achieved through these investments range from 0 to 10 GWh per year.

V. Awareness-Raising Activities Implemented in 2024

The company implemented several awareness-raising activities in 2024. As part of these, ESG-themed training sessions were held for employees, which were followed by a sustainability exam. Additionally, some employees participated in an international ESG workshop.